

2 January 2013

HINTERHUBER & PARTNERS 2012 year in review

Innsbruck (Austria) – 2 January 2013 – Hans Hinterhuber, Chairman HINTERHUBER & PARTNERS, comments on the company's 2012 results and the outlook for the current year: "2012 marked another phantastic year for our company. Our three areas of consulting and executive education – Strategy Pricing and Leadership – continue to be in demand, even during these challenging times. Revenues for the past year grew by more than 15% and also for 2013 we expect to strong growth. In addition, we completed a number of exciting research projects and we look forward to seeing these papers in print."

For further information about HINTERHUBER & PARTNERS, please contact:

Prof. Dr. Hans Hinterhuber
Chairman, HINTERHUBER & PARTNERS
hans@hinterhuber.com
Innsbruck, Austria

About HINTERHUBER & PARTNERS:

Hinterhuber & Partners is a premier consulting company specialized in Strategy Pricing and Leadership. We stand for the combination of academic excellence and real world business experience to deliver a lasting impact in client operations and client capabilities. Hinterhuber & Partners ranks among the most impactful consulting companies globally with respect to the number of publications in the Harvard Business Review, MIT Sloan Management Review and Long Range Planning.

For more information, visit the company's website at <http://www.hinterhuber.com>