Innsbruck (Austria) – 10 May 2007 – HINTERHUBER & PARTNERS is proud to announce that the book “Leadership” by Hans Hinterhuber (4th edition, 2007) has received highly favourable reviews by both Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung – Germany’s leading business newspaper – as well as by Manager Magazin – Germany’s leading business periodical. The Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung writes that “[Hans Hinterhuber’s new book] is worth reading from the first until the very last page”. Manager Magazin calls the book “highly needed” and recommends the book to executives to “reflect upon the moral good and the primacy of reason over emotions”.

In this book Hans Hinterhuber combines teachings from Ancient philosophers and leaders with examples from outstanding current leaders and companies to show how companies can increase the value of their leadership abilities and their leadership pipeline. “Leadership”, already in its 4th edition only four years after publication, is the best-selling book on leadership in continental Europe.
